

I am asking that FCC reconsider the petition by the CBA on Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. As a consumer and spender of our own money, I feel each individual is entitled to their own privacy by controlling the incoming phone calls that we receive in the privacy of our own homes, whether it's an established business relationship or not. Thank you.